Revised:

Thursday, February 24, 2005

Please note, you do not need to download the Trial Scheduling Order unless you have been instructed by the Court to do so.

If you are required by the Court to submit this document, you must complete all relevant sections in the order and modify the order to reflect the Court's instructions and the circumstances of your adversary proceeding. For example, if the Court has not instructed the parties to appear at a pre-trial conference or the parties have not agreed to present direct testimony by written declaration, the paragraphs in the order regarding these matters must be deleted. The Court will provide you with the discovery deadline, trial date and, if applicable, pre-trial conference date.
